

Sample Art Test

- 1 The “Rule of Thirds” divides an image into:
  - A. Three equal parts
  - B. Six equal parts
  - C. Nine equal parts
  - D. Twelve equal parts

- 2 Chartreuse is a shade of:
  - A. Green
  - B. Pink
  - C. Orange
  - D. Grey

- 3 This artist is known for his paintings of jungles, though he never left France.
  - A. Rousseau
  - B. Matisse
  - C. Manet
  - D. Cassatt

- 4 A graphic element representing a trademark or a brand is a:
  - A. Lotset
  - B. Lithograph
  - C. Linotype
  - D. Logo

- 5 A piece of sculpture with parts that are capable of independent movement is a:
  - A. Tensile
  - B. Stabile
  - C. Mobile
  - D. Reptile

- 6 This type of perspective is usually used to represent buildings viewed from the top.
- A. Three-tiered
  - B. Three-pronged
  - C. Three-feature
  - D. Three-point
- 7 Numbers are used to classify artists' brushes based on this criterion.
- A. Type of paint
  - B. Type of canvas
  - C. Size of brush
  - D. Bristle material
- 8 The revival of Greek art and architectural themes was termed:
- A. Postmodernism
  - B. Neoclassicism
  - C. Extraneonism
  - D. Verticalism
- 9 Gouache is:
- A. Opaque watercolors
  - B. A sculpting technique
  - C. A resin
  - D. A finely woven cloth
- 10 Hospitality, health care and institutional are specialized fields in this area of design.
- A. Engineering
  - B. Modeling
  - C. Abstract
  - D. Interior

Thanks for checking out the Sample Art Test.